Data Science Project Presentation

20 marks available

Introducing the project   4 marks

- Project team members introduced
    - an overview of roles included
- The industry client's requirements presented
    - client introduced
    - scope of project (given COVID constraints)
- Key data science research question introduced
    - challenges clearly articulated

The project in detail   12 marks

- Which stage/stages of the data science pipeline does your project focus on?
- A discussion of exploratory data analysis included
- A brief review of the related literature / techniques included
- Statistical / machine learning models used in the study presented
    - was the description/explanation clear?
- Results described in appropriate detail
- Conclusions/recommendation presented

The presentation   4 marks

- Effective use of visuals resources to present ideas
- Logical progression of argument or ideas throughout the presentation
- All group members participated in presenting